

ME AND MY MOM

by Mercer Mayer

Me and my mom riding the train.
Going to town I hope it don't rain.
The conductor asked me for the tickets just now
but I don't know where they went.

Me and my mom going to town
see the Museum gonna mess around.
We can buy lots of stuff at the Department store.
We'll shop 'til we drop.

We saw some bones of a dinosaur
and a painting somebody did on the floor.
Don't think I want to see any more.
Where do they keep the toys?

Me and my mom tired and beat gonna take a load off of our feet.
On the train back home we fell asleep.
Oops, we missed our stop.
